Cereal Box Book Report

Your assignment is to design a cereal related to a fictional book. You will also decorate a real cereal box with illustrations, text and even a prize inside!

Front of Box: Include the name of the cereal and a picture. Invent a name for the cereal that is related to book, yet sounds like a cereal. Do not use the exact title of the book. Choose a shape for the cereal as well as colors and ingredients that all relate to the book.

Prize: Your prize must be something the main character could have used in the book or something that reminds you of the main character. You must include a picture of the prize on the front of your box. You may actually put a prize in your box!

Right Side: List of ingredients that includes the story elements (main characters & setting). Under the heading "Ingredients," list the main characters & setting and write at least 1 sentence about each.

Left Side: One-paragraph summary that describes the main problem & solution of the book. Use words that will "grab" the reader's attention and make them want to buy your cereal.

Top of Box: Include title, author, number of pages, and the number of stars you would give the book if you were a book critic. The max number is 5 stars.

What Teachers Are Saying...

My students loved this resource!
It is a great alternative to a traditional book report. It is very creative and engaging for students to interact with the content of the book in a more in-depth way.

– Alexis A.

The entire class created the report using the same book, and the boxes were so creative and unique. None were the same!! Thank you for putting this together.
