What Teachers Are Saying...

My students used this when we wrote letters to military members. The sentence prompts helped students stay on track with their writing, making for an easy writing process.

- Lisa R.

We used this to write to active military personnel and understand why we celebrate Veteran's Day (and that it isn't just a random no-school day).

Dear _____,

Dear Soldier/Veteran,

1st Paragraph: Introduce yourself: first name, age, state you live in, and favorite hobbies. Then, thank the soldier/veteran for serving the U.S.A. to help keep us safe.

Hi, my name is Jane. I am 8 years old and live in Virginia. My favorite thing to do is read and play outside. Thank you for keeping our country safe!

2nd Paragraph: Tell the soldier/veteran your favorite thing about living in the U.S.A. Ask them what they love most about our country.

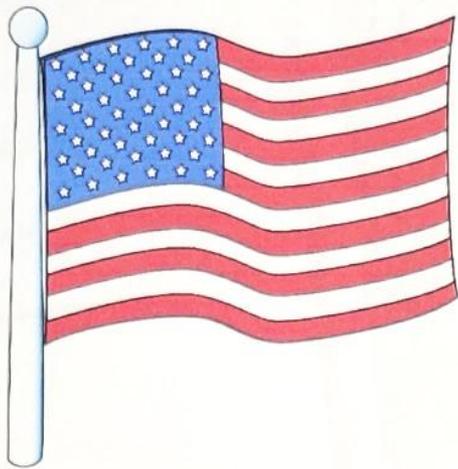

My favorite thing about being an American is the freedom to make my own choices. What do you love most about the U.S.?

3rd Paragraph: Thank the soldier/veteran again for dedicating their lives to help keep us safe. Tell them how awesome you think they are!

Thank you for working to keep us safe. I am so thankful for you. Go U.S.A.!

Your Friend,

Jane
