Diorama can be completed with any tribe

Here's why buyers this resource

“ This was the perfect template and project for my 5th graders to do. We did a shoe box diorama last year and I made my own resources for it, but these were so much better. Couldn't pass it up!
-Morgan C.”

“ I was looking for a fun project to wrap up our Native American Unit. My students loved it. It was clear cut on the expectation of what was needed to complete the box. Their projects turned out awesome!
- Ashli R.”

“ My students loved this! I introduced the concept of a diorama the week prior. When they got to start their research they were completely psyched. Now they are working on the actual diorama part. I love that it comes with a grading rubric, which I showed them before we started.
- Kim D.”
